A grassroots, multimedia collection housed in archivist Bet Power’s residence in Northampton, the SMA strives to collect, preserve, protect, and make accessible the literature, history, and art of all sexual minorities of all races and ethnicities, including: transsexuals, transgender persons, lesbians, gays, bisexuals, intersex persons, queers, gender-queers, cross-dressers, BDSM/leather folk, asexuals, polyamorists, celibates, and other emerging sexual minority groups.

We seek to inform, educate, and inspire the TLGBIQ community and our allies to understand our unique stories, and individual and collective experiences.
