

Reporting Incidence of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS) Case Contents

Revised January 20, 2009

1.) Case Study: Situation Summary

2.) Appendices: These provide specific information and may be used selectively by each instructor, depending on his or her emphasis in the use of the case. The appendices provide the technical details for an in-depth analysis of Bhopal as well as additional references both for the instructors and the students.

Appendix A: Chronology

- 1.) SARS Chronology
- 2.) Table of SARS cases and fatalities Nov 2002 – July 2003

Appendix B: WHO cooperation against disease

- 1.) WHO regulations and resolutions

Appendix C: The Chinese Context

- 1.) List of Background Readings

Appendix D: Information about SARS

- 1.) Background information about the SARS disease

Appendix E: Additional Readings for Students and Instructors

- 1.) Readings for instructors and students

Appendix F: Internet Resources

- 1.) Websites of national public health and disease control agencies