Clinician joins University Health Services team

AMHERST, Mass. – Nurse practitioner Christine Horn has joined the staff at University Health Services (UHS), the campus health center at the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

A Wendell resident, Horn is the newest members of a healthcare team offering routine, acute and urgent outpatient care for the university's students, faculty, staff and their families.

She previously practiced with a mental health and substance abuse inpatient center in Vermont, caring for adolescent, adult and geriatric clients. Her background includes experience in outpatient family practices, women's clinics and hospital settings throughout Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Horn is a magna cum laude graduate of the nursing program at Worcester State College and received her master's degree from the University of Massachusetts Graduate School of Nursing in Worcester. Certified as an adult nurse practitioner and a gerontological nurse practitioner, she is a member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society and the Nightingale Honor Society.

UHS offers comprehensive medical and mental health care, referral and education services, with a special focus on the health needs and concerns of students. For more information, visit www.umass.edu/uhs or call (413) 577-5000.
