FIFTEEN PIONEER VALLEY ARTISTS celebrate the Heritage Trees of UMass in this museum-quality calendar to benefit the Waugh Arboretum. Featuring all new works of art, this calendar supports a vision of the University as fertile ground for teaching and research and celebrates the Arboretum as a “green framework” for the campus.

THE WAUGH ARBORETUM, established in 1944, commemorates Frank A. Waugh, the first head of what is now the University’s Landscape Architecture Department. The campus trees form the Arboretum and include a number of rare trees, such as the stately Japanese elm at South College, the oldest of its kind in the United States.

THIS CALENDAR will serve as a year-round reminder of the natural beauty to be found at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. You can support the maintenance and preservation of the Waugh Arboretum by ordering your calendar today!

Calendars are $13.95 each, plus $2.50 for postage and handling.

All proceeds from the sale of this calendar will benefit the UMass Waugh Arboretum.

To order your 2002 UMass Waugh Arboretum Calendar, send this form and payment to:
