INTO OUR THIRD DECADE!

UPCOMING WOST EVENTS

FACULTY LECTURES

There will be two lectures sponsored by Women’s Studies in the first part of this spring semester. Fatima Duisebaeva, who is a visiting faculty member affiliated with the Afro-American Studies Department will speak about Women and the Culture of the Kazakh people. Barbara Cruikshank, a faculty member in Political Science, will speak about the welfare system. Watch your mail or call the office for specific dates, times and locations. These promise to be worthwhile and topical events.

ALUMNI CAREER FORUM

One of the most inspiring Women’s Studies events is the Rossman Alumni Career Forum. This is the program where Women’s Studies graduates come back and share their motivational and sometimes amazing stories of career and life choices. This event is scheduled for the late spring. Is there life after Women’s Studies? You will find some answers and models here. Watch for a mailing, posters, and ads in the Collegian.

WOMEN WITH DISABILITIES

Women’s Studies will sponsor a panel presentation on issues relating to Women and Disabilities. Discussion will follow this important program. We hope majors, minors, and faculty will join us for this significant event. Watch for mailings, posters, and announcements. Thanks to major Rachel Tanenhaus for raising this important issue.

RECEPTION FOR PAULA MARK

As featured on an inside page in this newsletter, Paula Mark, the Women’s Studies reference librarian has recently retired. Women’s Studies will host a talk by Paula followed by a reception in her honor. We hope everyone will join us in recognizing the wonderful contributions Paula has made to the department over the years. Watch for an invitation to the talk!

For any departmental events: Any person requiring special accommodations due to a disability contact the office by 2 weeks prior to the event by calling 413-545-1922 or e-mailing us at wost-studies@wost.umass.edu

LECTURE FUND ESTABLISHED FOR WOMEN SPEAKERS

A new endowed fund has been established entitled: the Lois E. Toko Lecture Series. This endowment was created by Lois Toko, a University graduate, shortly before her death from cancer this fall. The fund will serve to bring women speakers to the University. Lois Toko was president and founder of a successful marketing research company in Burlington, Massachusetts and a longtime supporter of Women’s Studies. Additional donations are welcome. For more information on the fund contact Sharon Davenport, Development Office, University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

SINCERE THANKS TO OUR DONORS

This year the program was gratified by the many repeat donors to the program. We truly enjoy the special vote of confidence that repeat donors give us. We appreciate and use well all the donations we receive. Without donations, we would not be able to co-sponsor events, give our graduates T-shirts, and sometimes buy essential office equipment! Thanks to:

Helane K. Abramowitz
Barbara Bazemore
Brenda C. Bergstrom
Leslie K. Breault
Kathryn Daniels
Karen C. Kranick-Howes
Jacqueline D. Levin
Arlene L. Lieberman
Alina M. Laine
Prudence A. Mackinney
Katherine T. Malone
Michele D. Melchionda
Teresa Olevsky
Patricia Shea
Inez Sieben
Sandra Taylor
Alita Woodcock-Parody
WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

Thanks and welcome to executive committee faculty volunteers: Joyce Berkman, History Department; Marta Calas, School of Management; Arlyn Diamond, English Department; Naomi Gerstel, Sociology Department; Susan Jahoda, Art Department; Chris King, School of Nursing; and Susan Michaelman, Consumer Studies. These faculty members represent a broad cross-section of disciplines and bring diverse skills, interests, and talents to the Executive Committee. Some members have served on Women’s Studies boards and committees since the program began, others are relatively new faces. Welcome and thanks to all.

TWO UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

One of the unique aspects of Women’s Studies is the focus on student involvement in decision-making. At a well attended gathering in October, 2 student representatives to the Executive Committee were selected by the students. They are Tricia Shoemaker and Nicole Larace. Their phone numbers are available from the office. The Women’s Studies Executive Committee includes WOST Faculty, Faculty from other departments teaching Women’s Studies courses, staff, 2 undergraduate student representatives and one graduate student representative. All major policy decisions for the program including specialization of new hires, governance and curriculum changes are approved by this body. The committee meets monthly during the academic year. Nicole and Tricia join Valerie Carey as student reps. Valerie is an experienced teaching assistant in Women’s Studies and a doctoral student in English. She is the graduate student representative to the committee. Most of the executive committee members have mailboxes in the Women’s Studies office.

UPCOMING FIVE COLLEGE EVENTS

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S MONTH BREAKFAST

Everywoman’s Center is sponsoring an International Women’s Month breakfast at the Bangs Community Center in Amherst. The breakfast will take place on Wednesday, March 8, 9:00-11:00 a.m. Call the Everywoman’s Center for more information.

WITNESS TO VIOLENCE PROJECT

As part of a national campaign against violence against women, Everywoman’s Center is working with artist Bob Markey. Bob Markey is making a visual representation of the number of women battered daily in the United States. Men are invited to update the tally, and survivors are invited to sign the board. The number is updated every 15 seconds. This project will be at UMass on March 8, International Women’s Day, 11:00-1:00. Chancellor Scott will be the first man to update the tally on campus. Men and women are invited to participate. Call the Everywoman’s Center at 545-0883 for more information.

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

The Take Back the Night March against violence against women has been tentatively scheduled for Thursday, April 13, 6 p.m. in Northampton. Call the Everywoman’s Center for information or to participate in the steering committee 545-0883. If you’ve never been part of a Take Back the Night march don’t miss this opportunity. This is a very powerful event.

ECONOMIC EMERGENCE OF WOMEN, PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE

The Mount Holyoke Department of Economics presents 2 lectures in the continuation of the series on the economic emergence of women:

Thursday, February 2, 1995
“Gender and the Social Costs of Structural Adjustment in Latin America”
Lourdes Beneria
Cornell University

Thursday, March 2, 1995
“Holding Hands at Midnight: The Paradox of Caring Labor”
Nancy Folbre
UMass/Amherst

Thursday, April 6, 1995
“A Policy Agenda for Women”
Barbara Bergman
American University

All lectures are held in Gamble Auditorium, Mount Holyoke College, 7:30 p.m. with a reception to follow. Sponsored by the Morrison Endowed Lecture Fund.
EVERYWOMAN'S CENTER SUPPORT GROUPS

The Everywoman's Center is offering several free support groups to the University community. The support groups for the spring semester are: Asian Women's Support Group, Women's Chronic Illness Support Group, ReEntry Women Student's Support Group, and Women and Body Image Support Group. Call 545-0883 by February 17 for a screening interview if you are interested in participating in any of these groups. The Center is also offering 2 other women's support groups: Rape Survivor's Support Group and Child Sexual Abuse Survivors Support Group. To find out more about these groups call 545-0800.

JOB OPENING

Data entry coders are needed for the AIDS Memorial Quilt Archive Project. Work study preferred, positions for Spring 1995 semester. Applicants must be visually oriented, highly reliable, computer knowledgeable, and sensitive to AIDS issues. Grant funded. For an application contact Karen Lederer in Women's Studies or Louise Bloomberg in Art History, 545-4061.

INTERNET NEWS

The Women's Studies Department will begin posting information through the University's gopher server (gopher.umass.edu) sometime during the Spring 95 semester. This information will be available to anyone with access to the internet, by selecting "Women's Studies" under the "Academic Department Information" heading of the University's main gopher server menu.

In addition to providing information on the major, minor, courses, faculty office hours, and new announcements, we plan to provide direct menu-driven links to other internet resources on feminism and Women's Studies, including the University of Maryland's WMST-L Data Archive, FEMISA listserv archive, ECOFEM listserv archive, FEMECON listserv archive, University of Minnesota Women's Center, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education's Center for Women's Studies in Education Archive, Queer Resource Directory, University of California Irvine's (PEG) Virtual Reference Library on Women's Studies and Resources, and much more.

Our postings may be previewed by contacting the Women's Studies office for the address of our gopher test site. To preview our gopher server or for more information on Women's Studies resources available through the internet, contact the Women's Studies office. You may also send us e-mail to our new departmental internet e-mail address: womens-studies@wost.umass.edu

ACADEMIC NEWS

ADVISING HOURS

Ever have a hard time scheduling an appointment with a Women's Studies Advisor? Starting this semester, on a trial basis, there will be a few time blocks each week reserved only for student appointments. You can request an appointment by calling the main number at Women's Studies, and speaking with Linda Hillenbrand, the office manager. Appointments are available for major, minor, field work, or general Women's Studies advising including assistance in finding a faculty sponsor. To make an appointment with Karen Lederer, Chief Undergraduate Advisor and Field Work Coordinator, or Sue Lee, Minor Coordinator, call Linda at 545-1922. Annie Mara is also available for general Women's Studies advising. Appointments can still be made by contacting Karen, Sue or Annie directly as well.

ALL STUDENTS: Please keep the office updated with your current address and phone number. We can't contact you if we don't know where you are!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR HIGH ACHIEVING STUDENTS! As always, WOST students are activists, work, study, and win awards. We have numerous award recipients, honor students, and students on the Dean's List. Keep up the good work.

MAJORS: As always it is a good idea to stop by and check on your credits, requirements, and University requirements. Be certain that the office is informed of all component, exchange, practica and independent study courses that you are including in your major study. SENIORS: You must come by for a credit check. MINORS: Make an appointment with Sue to check your credits, component courses, etc. You must have a sponsor's signature for your minor to be official. Remember the new advising hours are available to you!
The following Spring 1995 courses fulfill the Woman of Color requirement for the Women's Studies major or minor:

WOST 392L Women of Color and Activism
Alex Deschamps MW 4:00-5:15

WOST 394A Arab and Muslim Fiction & Autobiography
Leila Ahmed T Th 1:00-2:15

AFROAM 326 Black Women
John Bracey Mon. 7-10 p.m.

ANTH 524 Women in Cross Cultural Perspective
Majorie Abel W 2:30-5:15

Mount Holyoke College

WS 333(03) Indigenous Women in Contemporary Struggle for National Liberation
D. Almedia

Smith College

JPN 360B Seminar: Images of Women in Japanese Literature
Takao Hagiwara

SLL 372B Contemporary Women Novelists of Latin America
Nancy Sternbach

LET'S TALK ABOUT RACE

Women's Studies is very excited that one of our majors, Kaolin has put together this ambitious offering. Kaolin is a returning student, a published writer and mother. She brings years of work experience and her lived experience of being the white mother of 2 adult bi-racial children to the design of this one credit class.

WOST 296Q Let's Talk About Race
Kaolin
1 credit
Wednesday, 4-5 p.m.
Location TBA

In this course we will learn how to observe racism and effectively determine the many ways in which we can begin to dismantle it in our own lives. Because racism can be difficult to pinpoint in certain environments, you will go out into the community to learn how to observe it more keenly than you may have been able to in the past.

As a result of this exploration you may find many layers of guilt, shock and revulsion surface. If you hadn't already and we'll find ways to address our feelings which enable us to cope and confront racism, rather than to become overwhelmed and disempowered by it.

Regular attendance is mandatory. Assignments will include weekly 2-3 page journals, one field trip, and one performance piece/presentation. The following textbooks are required: Mab Segrest, Memoirs of a Race Traitor, Joan Steinau Lester, The Future of White Men and Other Diversity Dilemmas, and Clyde W. Ford We Can All Get Along. The course will be graded on a pass/fail basis. Please call Kaolin at 584-4996 for further information. Capacity 25.

COMMITTED TO ANOTHER MAJOR BUT INTRIGUED BY WOMEN'S STUDIES?

Because of the continuing expansion of feminist scholarship and Women's Studies sub-fields within various academic disciplines, many departments in the University offer a number of introductory and upper-level Women's Studies courses. By carefully selecting their courses, students majoring in these departments have the opportunity to fulfill their major requirements, while also making progress towards a minor in Women's Studies: Afro-American Studies, Anthropology, Comparative Literature, Economics, Education, English, History, Journalism, Legal Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, School of Management, and Social Thought and Political Economy (STPEC).

In addition, the following departments offer courses which address overlapping areas of Women's Studies, and these courses may often be credited toward a minor, major, or second major in Women's Studies: Art, Classics, Communications, Consumer Studies, German, and Philosophy.

If your course choices keep leading you in the direction of Women's Studies, check out this option. Contact Sue Lee, Minor Coordinator in Women's Studies.

To learn more about the overlapping areas and/or course offerings between your major and Women's Studies, call or stop by the Women's Studies office, since careful planning is needed to focus on the overlapping areas of your major and Women's Studies.
CAREER NEWS

University Career Services offers several free services to University students including workshops, a career library, career counseling, etc. Non-profit and social change groups are amongst the groups interviewing this spring. Call 545-2224 for more information.

LIBRARY NEWS

UMASS LIBRARY

Farewell and congratulations on retirement to Women’s Studies expert, reference Librarian Paula Mark. Best wishes to Paula and thanks for all your excellent assistance over the years. Welcome to Emily Silverman, the new Women’s Studies resource person in reference. Emily stopped by the office to introduce herself, and invite Women’s Studies folks to make use of her expertise. Right away Emily updated and continues to update the “Women’s Studies and Library Resources” handout. Stop by reference in the tower library to get a copy and meet her, she works weekdays, business hours.

WOMEN’S STUDIES LIBRARY

The Women’s Studies library has been revised, revamped, and almost fully catalogued thanks to the efforts to Linda, Stacy, Rachel and Margaret. The books will be catalogued by title, author, and subject. Books can be borrowed for 2 weeks at a time.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

NEW MAJORS AND MINORS

Welcome to the following students who joined our program this past fall. New Majors include: Aimée Françoise Brill, Joy Collins, Kelly Hayes, Ann Marie Peavey, Munirih Taafaki, Rachel Tanenhaus, Isabel Tereso. Welcome to new minors Elisabeth Cronan, Stacy Horne, Judith Richter, Melanie Arruda, Krista Holmstrom, and Laoise King. If you think your name should have been included in one of these lists and it wasn’t, please contact the office so we can look into the problem.

GRADUATES

Congratulations to winter graduates: Kelly Hayes, Margaret Valenti and Eliza White. Minors were awarded to winter grads Susanne Gilbert and Lynne Maynard.

WELCOME TO NEW WOMEN’S STUDIES STAFF

Annie Mara has been working in Women’s Studies, job-sharing with Karen who has been partially released to work on the AIDS Quilt Archive Project. Annie’s responsibilities include teaching “Career and Life Choices for Women,” advising, and planning program events. She was responsible for the very successful pizza party in the fall. Annie is a graduate student in the Social Justice Program of the School of Education and we are lucky to have her working with us. Welcome also to new WOST 187 Teaching Assistants Mary Ann Levine and Suzanne La Grande. Mary Ann is a Ph.D. student in the Anthropology Department and Suzanne is a Ph.D. student in Communication. Women’s Studies is fortunate to attract such bright and talented teachers to our staff.

Welcome also to new work study employee Stacey Gillis. Stacy brings enthusiasm and energy to the office.

LOCAL CONFERENCES

THE FIGHT FOR ABORTION RIGHTS AND REPRODUCTIVE FREEDOM

The Ninth Annual Conference for Campus and Community Activists will take place March 31 through April 2, 1995 at Hampshire College. The conference is sponsored by the Civil Liberties and Public Policy Program at Hampshire College and is an important opportunity for activists to meet, learn, and plan. There are a broad range of topics focusing on reproductive health and rights domestically and internationally. The conference is free and open to all. Contact the program at 582-5645 or 582-5719 to receive a conference brochure.

GRADUATE STUDENTS ADDRESS WOMEN’S LIVES

On Friday, April 28, 1995, there will be a conference from 1-6 p.m. here at UMass focusing on graduate student research. The conference organizers are looking for course papers, dissertation chapters and other works in progress. A variety of disciplines and topics will be addressed at the conference, with papers being of interest to a diverse audience. Deadline for submitting paper proposals is February 27. For more information contact Valerie Carey at 546-7493 or Joyce Berkman at 549-0659 or 545-6759.
CONFERENCES AROUND THE COUNTRY

Crossing the Boundary: Feminisms Inside and Outside the University takes place March 17-19, 1995 at the University of Tulsa. Keynote speaker is Judy Grahn. Contact Graduate Students for Women's Studies, Department of English, The University of Tulsa, 600 South College Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74104-3189.

Crossing the Boundaries III, a counter-disciplinary graduate student conference on "Violence and Representation" is March 24-25, 1995 at Binghamton University. Contact the conference at Crossing the Boundaries III, Binghamton University, English Department, Binghamton, NY 13902.

Creative Tensions: Women Across the Ages is the fourth Purdue University Women's Studies Symposium March 29-April 1, 1995 at the Stewart Center at Purdue. Contact the Women's Studies Program, 1361 L. A.E.B., Room 2258, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907-1361, phone (317) 494-7685.

Ecofeminist Perspectives is March 31 - April 1 at the University of Dayton. Speakers include Carolyn Merchant and Carol Adams. For information contact Dr. Brian Luke, Department of Philosophy, University of Dayton, Dayton, OH 45469-1546 or Dr. Pamela L. Thimmes, Department of Religious Studies, University of Dayton, Dayton, OH 45469-1546.

Surviving and Thriving: Women's Studies in the 1990's will take place Saturday, April 22 at the University of Connecticut. This is the 19th annual conference of the New England Women's Studies Association. Contact the Women's Studies Program, U-181, 368 Fairfield Road, The University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT 06269-2181, (203) 486-3970.

This 16th annual conference will consider women's relationship to revolutionary/evolutionary change historically and globally, in women's studies, the women's movement, and in NWSA. The four plenaries are based around the themes: Generations of Women, Politics of Survival, Order and Chaos, and Communities and Coalitions. Sliding scale registration. For membership information contact NWSA, 7100 Baltimore Blvd, Suite 301, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20740, (301) 403-0525, nwsa@umail.umd.edu. For conference information contact NWSA '95, Women's Studies, Ross Hall 405, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming, 82071-4291. (307) 766-6872, WMST@UWYO.edu.

Tenth Berkshire conference on the History of Women will be held on June 7-9 at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

NEH Summer Institute: The Image and Reality of Women in Ancient Near Eastern Society will be June 14-July 18 at Brown University. Application deadline is March 1, 1995. Contact the NEH Institute, Program in Judaic Studies, Box 1826, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912. (401) 863-3938, judaic@brownvm.brown.edu.

Women in Education: Old Pathways and New Directions is the 9th annual WKU Women's Studies conference, Oct. 13-14 1995. Dr. Johnetta Cole and Dr. Jean Fox O'Barr are the keynote speakers. Contact Program Committee, WKU Women's Studies conference, 203 Wetherby Administration Bldg., Western Kentucky Univ., Bowling Green, KY 42101-3576, (502) 745-6477.

FIVE COLLEGE WESTERN RESEARCH CENTER

All events are free and open to the public and are held in the living room of Dickinson House, Mount Holyoke College. For more information, 413-538-2022

Research Associates Spring Colloquia

Tuesdays - 7:30 p.m.

February 7
Rachel Roth, Yale University (Political Science)
At Women's Expense: The Costs Of Fetal Rights

February 14
Rachel Joffe Falmagne
Clark University (Psychology)
Toward A Feminist Theory Of Inference

February 21
Ellie M. Hisama
City University of New York, Graduate Center Music
Gender And Modernism In The Music Of Marion Bauer And Ruth Crawford Seeger

March 7
Celebrate International Women's History Month with us as we honor Elizabeth Topham Kennan, outgoing President of Mount Holyoke College and Mary Maples Dunn, outgoing President of Smith College.
8:00 p.m., Gamble Auditorium, Mount Holyoke College

March 14
Arlene Dallafar
University of Massachusetts at Amherst (Sociology)
Gender And Entrepreneurship: Gender Resources In The Iranian Ethnic Economy

April 4
Barbara L. Whitten
Colorado College (Physics)
Objectivity In Science: The Perspective Of A Feminist Physicist

April 11
Nitza Hidalgo
Westfield State College (Education)
All Of David's Mother's: The Story Of A Puerto Rican Family

April 18
Momoko Watanabe
Tokyo Metropolitan University (Literature)
Trajectory Of Feminism In The Poetry Of Adrienne Rich

April 25
Jyl Lynn Felmam
Northampton, MA (Autobiography & Fiction)
If Only I'd Been Born A Kosher Chicken: A Jewish Daughter's Search For The Mother

May 2
Sally Greenhouse
Peaks Island, Maine (Autobiography and Performance Art)
Anything That Doesn't Kill You
Works-in-Progress Talks
Mondays 4:30 p.m.

February 13
Sonia Kruks
Oberlin College (Politics)
Women’s Experience: A Useful Concept For Feminism

March 6
Sangeeta Tyagi
Brandeis University (Women’s Studies)
Negotiating Power: Indian Women’s Folk Songs As Counternarratives

March 13
Marilyn Schuster
Smith College (Women’s Studies)
Jane Rule’s "Home Movie": Projecting A Lesbian Subject

April 3
Martha Umphrey
Amherst College (Law, Jurisprudence & Social Thought)
Reading The Unwritten Law: Sex And Excess In The Thaw Murder Trials

April 10
Janet Aalfs
Northampton, MA (Poetry and Martial Arts)
Kia: A Woman Shouts --Poetry, Martial Arts And Self Defense

April 24
Marsha Marotta
University of Massachusetts at Amherst (Political Science)
Maternal Bodies/Maternal Subjects

May 1
Alexandrina Deschamps
University of Massachusetts at Amherst (Women’s Studies/Third World Studies)
Vision And Practice: Merging The Public And Private Roles Of Women In The Eastern Caribbean

For updated event information or to receive Center mailings call (413) 538-2022. For information on Women’s Studies events in the Five College area, check the newsgroup Scfl.org.womens-studies.announce on network news or gopher.

The Program for Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual Concerns

Brown Bag Series
Wednesday’s - Noon - 1:30

February 8 - Campus Center 917
Allen Young
Co-Author of The Gay Report
Assessing 25 Years Of Gay Liberation

February 15 - Campus Center 917
Richard Burd
Associate Professor of English/UMass
"If I Ever Lose My Faith In You: Idols, Saints, Celebrities, Martyrs, Men, And Other Disappointments"

February 22 - Campus Center 917
Lloyd Pratt
Ph.D. Candidate at Brown University/English Department
Stonewall 25

March 1 - Campus Center 917
Rolf Flor
Graduate Student at UMass/Philosophy Department
Queer Visibility: Interview With A Faggot

March 8 - Campus Center 917
Claire Hemmings
Research Associate/Five College Women’s Studies Research Center
Bisexual Methodologies

March 15 — Campus Center 917
Chris Waters
Professor of History/Williams College
Teaching Queer Theory

April 5 - Campus Center 904-08
Suzanne LeGrande
Ph.D. Candidate at UMass/Communication Department
Theatre And The Making Of Political Community

April 12 - Campus Center 917
Deborah Bright
Professor of Photography/Rhode Island School of Design
New Queer Photography

April 19 - Campus Center 917
Philip Robinson
Poet/Author
A Black Poet’s Quest Never To Forget The Heroes; Philip Robinson Speaks Of His Legends

May 3 and May 10 TBA - For information call 545-4824

---

NEW WORLD THEATER EVENTS

Ticket Price: $6.00
Students/Senior Citizens: $3.50
For information call New World Theater 545-1972

Dan Kwong
Monkhood in Three Easy Lessons
February 11 — 8:00 p.m.
Bowker Auditorium

Roger Guenveur Smith
Frederick Douglass Now
February 25 — 8:00 p.m.
Bowker Auditorium

Repertorio Español
Botanica (performance in Spanish)
April 8 — 8:00 p.m.
Bowker Auditorium

Motoko Dworkin
My Snow White
April 22 at 8:00
April 23 at 2:00
Hampden Theater
What's inside?

Page 1  Upcoming Women's Studies Even
Page 2  Executive Committee News
Page 2  Five College Events
Page 3  Miscellaneous News
Page 3  Academic News
Page 5  Library News
Page 5  Comings and Goings
Page 5  Local Conferences
Page 6  Conferences Around the Country
Page 6  Five College Women's Studies Research Center
Page 7  Program for Gay Lesbian and Bisexual Concerns
         Brown Bag Series
Page 7  New World Theater Events

This newsletter is written and edited by Karen Lederer. Design and production by Linda Hillenbrand. Thanks to Leila Ahmed, Arlene Avakian, Sue Lee and Annie Mara for assistance.

P.O.Box 30530
University of Massachusetts at Amherst
Amherst, MA 01003-0530
#6-30690

Address Correction Requested