TEXTBOOKS
Most textbooks required for classes are sold at the Textbook Annex, located in the Physical Plant Building. New and used books are available. You can also order your books on line at www.umass.bkatz.com. You are encouraged to wait until the first class meeting if you are not certain of what books you need. You should not purchase books until you are officially enrolled in that class. Refunds will be issued only in accordance with Annex’s refund policy, available at the Annex and on the web. Please call the Textbook Annex at 413-545-3570 with any questions.

STUDENT TELEPHONE DIRECTORY
The 2003 – 2004 Student Telephone Directory will be sent out following the start of the semester. Copies will be available at the Campus Center Concourse.

Your name, residence hall or off-campus local address and telephone number will be listed. If you do not wish to be listed, a “Privacy Request” must be filed at the Dean of Students Office by 5 p.m. September 21st, 2004.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY SYSTEM
http://www.library.umass.edu
The libraries have comfortable places to study, the print and online information you need, and librarians to assist you with your research. See http://www.library.umass.edu for details on library hours, tours, services, and resources. Your UCard serves as your library card in all campus libraries. Call 545-0150 for library information and 545-0414 for library hours.

OIT (OFFICE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES)
OIT provides most computer and phone services on campus. Your OIT Account gives you:

• high-speed Internet access in the dorms
• wireless Internet access at campus “hotspots”
• UMail (email for UMass Amherst)
• access to computer labs, classrooms and email kiosks computing support through the OIT Help Desk and much more!

The OIT Web site (www.oit.umass.edu) is packed with information about these and many other services.

HEALTH SERVICES
The University Health Services (UHS), located near Franklin Dining Hall at the base of the hill in the Central Residential Area, is open 24 hours a day every day of the academic year for urgent and routine health problems. All students taking five or more credits are automatically billed for the mandatory Student Health Fee. For more information about on campus student health services, please call UHS at 577-5192.

IMMUNIZATION ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS
The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires all new students to be immunized against measles, German measles, mumps, tetanus, diphtheria, and Hepatitis B at the time of enrollment. The immunization questions on the New Student Immunization Form completed and signed by the student’s health care provider, will satisfy this requirement. Failure to have adequate levels of immunization will lead to administrative sanctions during the first semester.

PARKING
Campus parking regulations are strictly enforced. To park a vehicle on campus, you must obtain a parking permit from Parking Services, located at the Mullins Center parking lot between lot 25 and Yellow lot. Office hours are 7:45 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday – Friday.

FIRST WEEK 2004!
Welcome to UMass Amherst! Some terrific events have been planned to kick off the fall semester in style! We have tons of FREE things just for you!

First Year students will be officially welcomed into the UMass Amherst family at Minutemania on Monday, Sept. 6th at 4pm in the Mullins Center followed by a First Year Barbecue behind Mullins Center. You will then have the opportunity to see Lewis Black, live in concert at the Mullins Center. Be sure to get your ticket at your floor meeting on Sunday night!

Throughout the week more events are planned to help you meet new friends, find your way around campus and generally have a good time: the Involvement Fair and Carnival on Tuesday will show you all that UMass Amherst has to offer outside the classroom; a “beach party” (bring your UMass Amherst towel that you received at orientation); outdoor movies; entertainment in the Blue Wall; lots of food and much more.

Also, mark your calendars for Wednesday, September 8th as Russell Simmons, the co-founder of Def Jam Records, which brought hip hop music into the main stream, comes to the Mullins Center. Pick up your tickets in your residence hall on Sunday night.

You will get a full calendar of events when you check into your Residence Hall on Sunday or Monday. Welcome to UMass Amherst! Some terrific events have been planned to kick off the fall semester in style! We have tons of FREE things just for you!
