The Student Union Craft Center is hiring! We are seeking creative, dedicated individuals for positions on our staff. Applicants must have expertise in at least one of our craft areas and/or transferable skills. Craft Center staff members participate in all aspects of the business, making for a highly involved and intensive job.

The Student Union Craft Center is a dynamic and unique facility. We provide tools, materials, and instruction in ten distinct areas:

- batik
- beading
- B&W film photography
- bookmaking
- leather
- metalsmithing
- sewing
- silkscreen printing
- silk painting
- stained glass

We also offer other crafts including paper marbling, button making, henna, and felting.

Mission Statement

The Student Union Craft Center, established in 1971 through the efforts of students, serves to enrich UMass Amherst and Five-College life. The organization provides craft instruction and facilities in an inspiring and encouraging environment. It is a multidisciplinary agency that fuses art, teaching, and business, while cultivating free-form entrepreneurial artistic education without academic restriction for students, faculty, and staff of UMass and the Five College communities.

- Generate excitement through display projects and upkeep of designated craft area
- Maintain inventory, tools, and materials as necessary for designated craft area
- Instruct weekly evening workshops in designated craft area
- Work with exposure to chemicals that comply with Environment Health and Safety standards
- Assist with development of additional programming, such as visiting artist workshops, workshops for RSOs, RAs, other university departments, Craft Center open mics, and other collaborative projects
- Work in committees (Media & Marketing, General Areas, Policy & Discipline, Hiring & Training, Finances) that contribute to the development of the Craft Center as a student business

If you believe you are a good candidate for this job, please submit a completed application to the Student Union Craft Center no later than 8:00 PM on Friday, September 21st, 2018 (Walk-in during our open hours or via e-mail to craftctr@umass.edu with “F18 Hiring Application - [Your Name]” as the subject line with your application attached as a PDF).

If considered for this position, preliminary phone interviews will be conducted September 25th, 26th, and 27th followed by a formal interview with our full staff on September 29th and 30th.
Potential interviewees will be notified before 8:00 PM on September 28th.

If selected for a formal interview, you will be required to bring a portfolio of your craft/artwork to share. Portfolios should contain 6-10 pieces that demonstrate your skills and creativity. These may be physical pieces, digital images, or printed images. Considering the short timespan between interview notification and actual interviews, it is strongly recommended to begin gathering portfolio materials prior to September 28th. Please contact us with any questions regarding the application and/or interview process.
