April 15, 2004
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
The Plymouth County Conservation District (PCCD) has an opening for a conservation farm planner. That position will work in a USDA field office as part of a team assisting cranberry farmers with natural resource planning.

Title: Conservation Farm Planner

Availability: May 24 2004 – April 4, 2007

Closing Date: until filled

Duties and Responsibilities:
Responsible for coordinating and facilitating the development of individual conservation plans aimed at managing resources within the cranberry growing regions in Massachusetts (principally, Plymouth, Norfolk, Bristol, and Barnstable Counties). This will involve working as a team member with other planners and technical service providers.

Qualifications:
- Applicants must have a Bachelors Degree in agriculture or natural resources or equivalent work experience.
- Must demonstrate proficiency in interpersonal relations and communications.
- Must possess writing skills and computer experience. Word processing, data management and GIS software experience desired.
- Must have the ability to work well with others, possess a positive attitude and be self- motivated.
- Candidate must posses a valid driver's license.

Salary: PCCD will offer a competitive compensation package

To Apply: Applicants should send, fax or e-mail an introductory letter and resume to:
Jan Howes, Plymouth County Conservation District
15 Cranberry Highway
West Wareham, MA 02576
(508) 295-5151 X4
Fax 508-291-2368

jan-howes@ma.nacdnet.org
The Plymouth County Conservation District is an equal opportunity employer.

April 16, 2004

News paper advertisement:

The Plymouth County Conservation District is looking for a full time conservation farm planner: BS in agriculture or natural resources, 1 year experience in related field, strong writing, interpersonal skills and computer knowledge. Competitive compensation package for a three year position available. Send a letter and resume to PCCD, 15 Cranberry Highway, West Wareham Ma 02576.