Community Education and Social Change (B.A.)

The Community Education and Social Change concentration is designed for students looking to become impactful change agents and inspiring leaders within educational systems, community organizations and beyond.

The concentration exposes students to a wide range of theories with respect to social justice, communication, teaching & learning, leadership, research and digital technologies.

Flexible major
Bachelor's in Education
Non-licensure

250-hour internship experience
43–48 credits

Prepares students for careers in...

- Community Organization & Leadership
- Social Justice advocacy
- Higher Education
- Teaching
- Program & Curriculum Development
- Human Services
- Non-profit management
- and much more!

Contact us!

Education Advising Center
education@umass.edu