

Resources & Reporting

Confidential University Resources

24-hour Sexual Assault Support & Advocacy (SASA) at the Center for Women and Community (CWC) Hotline: 413-545-0800 Website: http://www.umass.edu/ewc/ CWC Office Number: 413-545-0883	SASA services supports people impacted by sexual violence, relationship violence and stalking and provides a 24/7 hotline, individual and group support and safety planning. Staff can support you in understanding your reporting options, and navigating campus, police, and court processes. Staff can also be available onsite at UHS or Cooley Dickenson for medical advocacy.
Center for Counseling and Psychological Health (CCPH) Phone: 413-545-2337 24/7 emergency on call services Website: http://www.umass.edu/counseling/	CCPH provides Confidential services include crisis intervention, short-term psychotherapy, support and therapy groups, psychological assessment, behavioral medicine, and psychiatric services. If you or someone you know is experiencing a psychological or emotional crisis, don't delay – get help right away! CCPH's emergency services are available 24 hours per day, 365 days a year.
University Health Services (UHS) Phone: 413-577-5000 Website: https://www.umass.edu/uhs/	Provides designated Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) examinations for survivors and assists patients with obtaining services from CWC/SASA.
Student Legal Services (SLSO) Phone: 413-545-1995 Website: https://www.umass.edu/slso/	Student Legal Services Office (SLSO) provides legal assistance to fee-paying UMass Amherst students.

Reporting Options

Equal Opportunity & Access Office (EOA) 225 Bartlett Hall Phone: 413.545.3464 Email: equalopportunity@umass.edu https://www.umass.edu/equalopportunity/	The Equal Opportunity and Access Office (EOA) administers the Policy against Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Interpersonal Violence. The Policy complies with federal and state laws that prohibit discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, interpersonal violence, and retaliation.
University of Massachusetts Police Department (UMPD) 585 East Pleasant Street Amherst, MA 01003-9600 Emergency: 413-545-3111 Non-Emergency Line: 413-545-2121 https://www.umass.edu/umpd/	UMPD is a confidential reporting agency for incidents of sexual assault, domestic/dating violence and stalking. This confidentiality falls under Massachusetts state law that prohibits police departments from disclosing identifying information. 