

Youth Film Showcase: Cultures of Peace

CALL FOR ENTRIES

SPEAK FOR PEACE THROUGH FILM AND VIDEO!

Following the success of last year's showcase the UMass Department of Communication and the Asian Arts & Culture Program is soliciting submissions for the second annual showcase of short film and video by local youth promoting themes of peace, cultural diversity, social justice, and environmental issues. All approaches to representing these themes through the medium of film or video (narrative, experimental, documentary, etc.) are welcome.

SCREENING:

Selected works will be screened at Amherst Cinema on Saturday, November 15th starting at 11a.m. Selected works are eligible to be included in a special program on ACTV (Amherst Community Television)!

ELIGIBILITY:

Any young person up to age 18 living within a 100-mile radius of Amherst, MA is eligible. Artistic collaborations are encouraged!

LENGTH:

Pieces up to approximately 5 minutes in length will be considered.
[Longer pieces or excerpts will be considered, time permitting.]

SUBMISSION DETAILS:

Work should be submitted on DVD or DV-tape formats and should be accompanied by a completed submission form which can be downloaded from the Asian Arts and Culture Program website starting 9/19/2008. Submission forms will also be available at the UMass Arab Cinema Panorama film screenings Wednesday nights, 7:00pm, in School of Management 137.
