

Tuition Charge Policy

As of July 1, 2016, the term “curriculum fees” became obsolete. A graduate students’ tuition and curriculum fee were combined into one tuition amount. The tuition amount is approved annually by the Board of Trustees. UMass provides a credit (formerly waiver) of the tuition charge to graduate student research assistants as a fringe benefit. A portion of the average graduate tuition credited, the Tuition Charge (formerly the Curriculum Fee Waiver Charge), will be assessed to research awards at UMass Amherst as a non-overhead-bearing direct cost. Unlike salaries and wages, tuition waivers (charges) must be excluded from the application of indirect costs [Uniform Guidance §200.466]. Remission of the tuition charge is charged to account code 786910 “Tuition/Fees Benefit”.

The following is a list of funds assessed the tuition charge followed by a list of funds not charged. If you do not see your fund or have any questions, please call or email Jacqui Watrous, Executive Director, cell 413-315-0562, e-mail watrous@umass.edu.
