

Updates to Graduate Application Review

The following changes were made to the SPIRE Graduate Application Review page that departments and faculty use to review admissions documents. These updates are not currently reflected in the instructional video.

SPIRE navigation and Search screen functionality:

The screenshot shows the SPIRE University of Massachusetts search interface. At the top, a navigation breadcrumb is circled in red: Main Menu > Graduate Application Review > Lookup Graduate Applicants. A red arrow points to this area with the text: "New navigation in SPIRE is at the top of the page".

The search criteria section is titled "Advanced Search" and "Define the criteria used for searching applicants." It includes a "start over" button and the following fields:

- Career: Graduate (GRAD)
- *Admit Term Begin: (1143) Spring 2014
- *Admit Term End: (1147) Fall 2014
- Application Center: [Dropdown menu]
- Range of Names From: [Input field] Through [Input field]
- Last Name Begins: [Input field]
- First Name Begins: [Input field]
- Additional search criteria: A dropdown menu is circled in red, with a red arrow pointing to it from the text: "Additional search criteria added for Application".
- Results Limit: 700 (700 Max)

At the bottom, there are "search" and "clear" buttons.
