Migration Matters: Rethinking Immigration in the Modern Americas

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
FEINBERG FAMILY
Distinguished Lecture Series
2014–2015

Thursday, September 25 • 4:30pm
“Undocumented Migration to the U.S.: Origins, Consequences, Remedies,” Mae Ngai (Columbia University)
Goodell Hall, Bernie Dallas Room

Tuesday, October 7 • 4:30pm
“A Nation of Immigrants: Brazil and the Meanings of Permanent Foreignness,” Jeffrey Lesser (Emory University)
Goodell Hall, Bernie Dallas Room

Tuesday, October 14 • 5:00pm
“Mother of George,” Film Screening and Discussion
Honors College Event Room 160 (by Roots Café)

Monday, October 20 • 4:30pm
“Mexican Im/migration and the Making of Modern America,” Neil Foley (Southern Methodist University) and Andrew K. Sandoval-Strausz (University of New Mexico)
Goodell Hall, Bernie Dallas Room

Thursday, October 23 • 4:30pm
“Nations of Immigrants: The U.S. in Global Perspective,”
Donna Gabaccia (University of Toronto)
Student Union Ballroom

Wednesday, October 29 • 6:00pm
“Activism through Music,” A conversation with Angélique Kidjo moderated by Bode Omojola (Mount Holyoke College).
Presented with the UMass Fine Arts Center.
Bowker Auditorium

Friday, November 14 • 1:00pm
“The New Asylum Seekers,” Maria Cristina García (Cornell)
Campus Center, Room 804

Thursday, January 22 • 4:30pm
Presented with the UMass-CES History Institute for Teachers.
97 Hawley Street, Northampton, MA

Thursday, February 26 • 4:30pm
“Rethinking Immigration History in the Classroom,” Julio Capó, Jr. (UMass) and Jessica Johnson (UMass).
Presented with the UMass-CES History Institute for Teachers.
97 Hawley Street, Northampton, MA

Friday–Saturday, February 27–28
“The Politics of Migration: Gender, Sexuality and Citizenship,”
A conference presented with the Department of Women, Gender, Sexuality Studies.
Campus Center, Marriott Room

Monday, April 6 • 4:30pm
Goodell Hall, Bernie Dallas Room

Teachers: Earn PDPs!
For more details, http://bit.ly/1mOhBUL