GIC Health Insurance Information for Coverages Effective July 1, 2018
Open Enrollment April 4 – May 2, 2018

Provider networks and formularies change July 1 – check to be sure your doctors and hospitals remain in your plan network and to verify the prescription formulary tier of your maintenance medications.

The list below highlights GIC health insurance coverage changes effective July 1, 2018. For more detail please reference the GIC Benefit Decision Guide and individual health insurance carriers’ webpages.

- All plans:
  - Will be open to enrollment (no restriction to enrolling in Tufts Navigator, Harvard Pilgrim Independence, and Fallon Select Care).
  - Prescription coverage will be identical across all GIC employee health insurance plans and managed by Express Scripts/ESI (check formularies, www.express-scripts.com/gicrx or tel. 855-283-7679). Annual prescription deductibles still apply ($100/individual, $200/family).
    - New cards mailed June 10, 2018
    - Maintenance medications not filled by mail order or at a CVS pharmacy are subject to 30-day copay charges. Members must notify ESI via telephone (tel. 855-283-7679) of decision not to use mail order or CVS.
    - Acredo Pharmacy (ESI) will provide specialty pharmacy coverage (tel. 855-283-7679)
  - Behavioral Health coverage will be managed by individual health insurance carriers (contact health insurance carrier for plan-specific information).
  - Tier 3 specialist co-pay will be reduced to $75/visit.

- Health New England, UniCare Community Choice, Harvard Pilgrim Primary Choice, Tufts Spirit and Fallon Direct: fiscal year deductibles will reduce to $400/individual, $800/family.

- Health New England and NHP will offer up to 20 visits/plan year chiropractic coverage.

- UniCare will no longer have separate medical and Rx out-of-pocket maximums (OOP). OOPs will be $5,000/individual, $10,000/family across all UniCare plans.

- UniCare PLUS will expand in-network coverage area to include New England and certain border states.

- Tuft Spirit: inpatient hospital co-pays will drop to Tier 1 $275, Tier 2 $500.
