Course Descriptions:

Intermediate. (Monday & Wednesday evenings 7:00-9:00pm)
This course is designed to strengthen students' abilities to listen and to speak. Reading and writing will also be emphasized to support the main goal of improving conversation skills. Special attention will also be focused on gaining confidence while speaking English on the telephone.

Advanced. (Mondays & Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:00pm)
This course will focus on conversational skills needed to function in daily life in the U.S.; brief grammar review, vocabulary study and practical exchanges with idioms as well as the cultural implications of English. Broadcast media is also used to read and listen to articles of current interest.

Each class is $75 per term. All community students, scholars, and their families are very welcome! Registration and payments can be made in-person at the International Programs Office main office, 467 Hills South, Monday-Friday from 8:30am-4:30pm

Classes are non-refundable.

Both fall semester classes begin Wednesday, January 25 and will run through Monday, May 1, 2017.

Ongoing registration will also be allowed throughout the semester.

Participants are allowed to change classes (Advanced to Intermediate, or Intermediate to Advanced) at any time with instructor’s permission at no additional cost.
