

Student Designed Concentration

Students who have interests that do not fall into the existing categories may, with the approval of the Graduate Program Director, develop their own concentration proposal. Students should prepare a one-page memo indicating the focus of their studies and the courses they propose to fulfill the concentration. The memo, signed by the student and Graduate Program Director, must be given to the LARP office.

Concentration
Coordinator
Mark Hamin

