(i) If no candidate for NCC has gone to a NEACURH or NACURH conference the aforementioned condition is waived.

b) Removal
   i) If at any point in the year an officer can no longer meet these requirements, that position will be vacated and filled by a special election as soon as possible. The RHA president, or highest-ranking officer may appoint an interim acting officer to take fill the vacated position.

   (1) An appeals process will be available to any officer who becomes ineligible under the above Sections

   (2) Any officer charged after the date of their election with judicial sanction from the Dean of Students Office and/or Residential Life who wishes to appeal the removal from their position will be placed on suspension.

   ii) Suspended officers will keep their title, pending the result of their appeal, but will not retain rights to act within their position.

   iii) An officer looking to appeal their ineligibility must file within seven (7) days of notification that they are ineligible for their position

   iv) The appeal shall be presented to the RHA General Body for a hearing. The officer may present their case in a five (5) minute speech and the General Body shall have the right to question the officer regarding the charges and the reasons for appeal.

   (1) Questions will be limited to five (5) minutes.

   (2) The General Body, following a five (5) minute discussion, shall vote on the appeal. A two thirds (⅔) vote in favor will allow the officer to be fully reinstated to their position on the Executive Board.

   v) The RHA President will preside over these hearings except for their own, in which case the Vice President will preside.

c) Impeachments
   i) Executive Board members can be impeached by the General Body after gaining a petition signed by three-fourths (¾) of the Voting Representatives.

   ii) Once a petition is filed, a hearing will be held at the next General Body meeting and impeachment will occur with a two-thirds (⅔) majority vote.

   iii) The President will preside over these hearings except for their own, in which case the Vice President will preside. D. Any Executive Board member is allowed to testify on their own behalf

2) Executive Board Elections
   a) Timeline

   i) Elections for President, Vice President, NCC, PROC, and Project Managers will be included as a part of the regular General Body Agenda.

   ii) Elections shall take place in the Spring Semester, before inauguration, which will take place at the Of the Year Awards ("OYAs") organized by the National Residence Hall Honorary ("NRHH").

   (1) If it is not possible, or not feasible for elections to take place before the OYA, the RHA E-board may vote to waive the requirement with a simple majority.

   iii) Election must be completed at least three RHA General Body meetings before the end of the semester.

   iv) Elections for NCC-IT must occur in the Fall semester.

b) Procedure
i) The President will call for nominations off the floor at the General Body meeting prior to elections and the meeting at which elections will take place.

ii) For each position, the candidates will be asked to leave the room and by random selections will be brought into the room one at a time.

iii) Candidates will present a three (3) minute speech.

   1) Extendable one (1) time, by up to three (3) minutes.

iv) Followed by Five (5) minutes of question and answer from the General Body.
