Encouragement Newsletter to Healthcare providers

Anyone can give up, it's the easiest thing in the world to do. But to hold it together when everyone else would understand if you fell apart, that's true strength.

You are VERY Special.

Cheryl S. RN.

Thank you for all your hard work and dedication! We appreciate everything that you do!

Dear Healthcare Workers,

Thank you so much for everything you are doing. Each day, it is heroic and brave how you risk your lives to care for strangers.

There is not a day where it goes unnoticed. 2020 was determined, prior to this pandemic, to be the Year of the Nurse. This unfortunate situation is further proving how deserving that title is. This year has shown how incredible nurses and all healthcare workers are as they continue on in this struggle. Burnt out, exhausted, unprotected, risking their lives, but still showing up for their patients.

There is a light at the end of the tunnel. You can do it! When this is all under control, it will be an amazing feeling, and your work is so greatly appreciated by everybody you care for and their families. Keep on being amazing and saving the world! I look up to every one of you so much.

Sincerely,
A Student Nurse

Your sacrifices are not unnoticed. You are the best of the best. Every day, you go above and beyond and do things that most people cannot do. You are heroes.

THANK YOU !

To our nursing colleagues currently working in the midst of the COVID-19 epidemic

Although many of us are retired and not able to join you as you care for patients or use your skills in other ways to help in this time, know that we are with you in spirit. You are brave, in fact heroic. You demonstrate for all of us the value of helping others in so many ways - the ethic of caring and compassion that underlie our profession. You are in my prayers every day as I ask for you to remain healthy and strong. Please reach out to us when you need to, for anything – we are here for you.
