

	SRTI: Student Response to Instruction	Forward FOCUS: Feedback on Course Understanding and Skills
Who developed this survey?	Office of Academic Planning and Assessment (OAPA)	Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL)
What are the survey administration dates?	Main SRTI Session: 11/16/2020 – 12/6/2020 Instructors who finish teaching before the last day of classes may choose from three earlier sessions	The Forward FOCUS will be available starting October 1st . Instructors choose when to send to students
How is the survey sent to students?	OAPA email to students once survey starts. Moodle/Blackboard notification	Instructor distributes the survey through Moodle/Blackboard. CTL provides you with the survey template
Who will see results?	Results will be sent directly to the instructor	Responses come directly to the instructor
What is included on the survey?	Usual SRTI forms plus one question about students' experiences with remote instruction. Read more about the Fall 2020 SRTI	15 questions regarding engagement, inclusion, value of course activities, strengths, and suggested changes. Read more about the Forward FOCUS
How do I opt-in to the survey?	Fill out this brief survey indicating your interest by October 12th (11 pm EDT)	Fill out this brief survey indicating your interest by November 10th
Can I customize the survey?	No	Yes
What support do I have to implement the survey?	OAPA email reminders to students; Notifications to students in Moodle or Blackboard; Response rate updates for instructors	Guidelines for implementation (e.g., when to distribute, when to remind students) provided by the CTL
What support do I have to interpret student responses?	CTL will provide support in interpreting student responses through individual consultations and online resources	