Note A. Some academic units have restricted the number of entering students, and many applicants are offered an alternate major. In the majority of cases, the alternate acceptance and enrollment figures do not represent acceptance or enrollment into that school or college, but acceptance or enrollment as an "Undeclared" Major.

Note B. Pre-majors are reported in the school/college and department of major.

Note C. Data are based on the Fall 2008 organizational structure of academic units and departments. Therefore, school or college totals may not be directly comparable to previous semesters and/or years due to the consolidation, reassignment, or suspension of selected academic programs

*Number of students for whom these data were available.

Note A. Beginning January 2005, the SAT was revised. A Writing test was added and the Verbal section was changed and renamed Critical Reading. The Combined score does not include the writing test.

Note B. 25th - 75th percentile represents the range of scores for the middle 50% of students.

Note C. The numbers pertain to students who were processed through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, submitted SAT scores, and were enrolled in a credit-bearing course at the end of the 14th calendar day of the semester.

*Number of students for whom these data were available.

Note A. Beginning January 2005, the SAT was revised. Writing was added and the Verbal section was changed and renamed Critical Reading. The Combined score does not include the writing test.

Note B. 25th - 75th percentile represents the range of scores for the middle 50% of students.

Note C. The numbers pertain to students who were processed through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, submitted SAT scores, and were enrolled in a credit-bearing course at the end of the 14th calendar day of the semester. Students are categorized according to the school or college affiliation of the major into which they were enrolled.

Note A. Regional: Students who are legal residents of the other New England states and enrolled in a degree program at the University of Massachusetts Amherst that is not offered at the students' own state institutions.

Note B. International: Students holding a visa are given the "international" designation and pay out-of-state tuition. Those students with refugee or alien registration status are classified as in-state or out-of-state depending on their state of residence.

Note C. Exchange: Students who are full-time undergraduate students from other colleges and universities on exchange at University of Massachusetts Amherst through one of several national and international exchange programs. Each program has a different tuition payment agreement.

Note D. Individual percentage entries may not sum to 100.0 because of rounding.

Note E. Graduate numbers include students enrolled in Continuing and Professional Education. Undergraduate numbers exclude Continuing and Professional Education.

*Minor programs allow the student to explore and attain some competence in a second area of study without fulfilling the full range of requirements of the major.

At least 15 credits in a coherent set of courses in a particular discipline, department or program are required.

Effective September 2008.

‡Salaries are not presented in cells with only one entry but are included in the totals.

Note A. Instructional Faculty: Faculty whose primary responsibility is instruction; includes department heads and faculty who are on sabbatical or have release time for research; excludes faculty on leave without pay.

Note B. Twelve-month (calendar year) salaries were scaled to a nine-month (academic year) basis using a conversion factor of .818.

Note C. Cost of living and merit increases are often awarded after the fall census date. Year to year changes in average salaries may reflect multiple off-cycle or retroactive pay increases.

Note D. Faculty salaries for 2004 include contracted raises (cost-of-living and merit) for the years 2001 -2003 that were awarded retroactively in Spring 2004.

Note E. Data reported for instructional faculty paid from all funding sources (state, GOF and CPE).

‡Salaries are not presented in cells with only one entry, but are included in the totals.

Note A. Twelve-month (calendar year) salaries were scaled to a nine-month (academic year) basis using a conversion factor of .818.

Note B. Instructional Faculty: Faculty whose primary responsibility is instruction; includes department heads, and faculty who are on sabbatical or have release time for research; and excludes faculty on leave without pay.

Note C. Cost of living and merit increases are often awarded after the fall census date. Year to year changes in average salaries may reflect multiple off-cycle or retroactive pay increases.

Note D. Faculty salaries for 2004 include contracted raises (cost-of-living and merit) for the years 2001 -2003 that were awarded retroactively in Spring 2004.

Note E. Data reported for instructional faculty paid from all funding sources (state, GOF and CPE).

Definitions and Notes

Sponsored Activity Expenditures: Restricted funds from federal, state, local, and private sources provided for special programs that enable members of the university community to do research, teaching, or service in their and the granting agencies' area of interest.

Direct Expenditures: Expenditures of sponsored activity as recorded on the financial records system in the noted fiscal year regardless of when the dollars were received.

Indirect Expenditures: Overhead expenses associated with sponsored activity.

All data reflect the organizational structure as of September 2008.

Expenditures are distributed proportionally among all Principal and Co-Principal Investigators associated with an award.

"Other Units": Include units within Academic Affairs that are not academic departments (e.g., Centers, Institutes Outreach, Research) as well as executive areas outside Academic Affairs, with sponsored activity (Administration & Finance, Athletics, Office of Information Technologies and Student Affairs).
