Wednesday, April 11th
Design Building 170 & Atrium
Food and coffee provided

Professional Panel 1:30-2:30pm
Professionals working in outreach and public engagement (OPE) will talk about their careers and answer audience questions. Come ask questions that are relevant to you.

OPE Idea and Resource Exhibition 2:30-4:30pm
Come for as long or short as you want to learn from, talk to, and collaborate with UMass graduate students and organizations about their OPE initiatives.

Registration is preferred, but not required: https://tinyurl.com/OPESummit

Look for us on Facebook for more info!

Are you a graduate student interested in extending your scholarly work beyond UMass, improving your communication skills, or pursuing a career in Outreach & Public Engagement (OPE)? If you don’t know where to begin or are interested in furthering your efforts, join us to learn about resources & opportunities on campus and beyond.

Come to the Outreach and Public Engagement Summit!

Professional Panel:

Alexandra Jones, Archaeology in the Community
Megan Litwhiler, Boston Museum of Science
Julie Johnson, The Hitchcock Center for the Environment
Claire Carlson, Historic Deerfield

Generously Sponsored by
UMass Amherst Graduate School • Office of Professional Development • NSF Learning Community • Department of Anthropology • Department of Polymer Science and Engineering • Interdepartmental Graduate Programs