Amherst's 'Pakistan Trolley' Rides Again

The "Pakistan Trolley," which has been unable to transport passengers since the beginning of the COVID pandemic, will make a public appearance on October 2 to celebrate Pakistan's independence.

Award-Winning Author Séverine Autesserre to Deliver Inaugural Peace and Human Solutions' Webinar

On October 2, 2021, the Peace and Human Solutions' Webinar will welcome its inaugural speaker, Séverine Autesserre, a professor of political science at Columbia University and a research affiliate at the Human Security Lab.

SPHHS Seeks Feedback for CEPH Self-study Report

The School of Public Health and Health Sciences (SPHHS) is seeking feedback on its CEPH Self-study Report, which is due in March 2022.

Photos and Video: UMass Professor, Students, Alumni and Private Industry Team Up

On October 1, 2021, the University of Massachusetts Amherst (UMass Amherst) will host a series of photos and videos featuring UMass professors, students, alumni, and private industry partners.

UMass Amherst Announces the Establishment of the Gary R. Lapidus Faculty Fund

The Gary R. Lapidus Faculty Fund was established to provide financial support for faculty members at UMass Amherst, with the first allocation being $1 million.

Astronomy Department Launches into New Academic Year with 'Nature' Trifecta

The Astronomy Department at UMass Amherst has announced the launch of a new academic year, with the focus on the 'Nature' Trifecta.

University of Iowa

Shabazz Named Ida Cordelia Beam Distinguished Visiting Professor at the University of Iowa

On October 1, 2021, the University of Iowa will welcome its first Ida Cordelia Beam Distinguished Visiting Professor, Ibram X. Shabazz.

UMass Receives $4.4 Million NSF Grant to Play Leadership Role in Educating Future Economists

On September 23, 2021, the University of Massachusetts Amherst (UMass Amherst) received a $4.4 million NSF grant.

Franklin County Jail

$2.6 Million Grant Will Fund Trauma Treatment for People with Addiction in Franklin County Jail

On September 23, 2021, the Franklin County Sheriff's Office announced a $2.6 million grant to fund trauma treatment for people with addiction in the Franklin County Jail.

UMass Amherst Libraries Announce Recipients of 2021 Open Education Initiative

On September 23, 2021, the University of Massachusetts Amherst Libraries announced the recipients of the 2021 Open Education Initiative.

Economist Isabella Weber Receives Award for Recent Book

On September 23, 2021, Isabella Weber, assistant professor of economics at UMass Amherst, received the prestigious award for her recent book.

Astronomy Department

New research, published in the prestigious journal "Nature," provides new insights into the formation and evolution of galaxies.

The "Pakistan Trolley," which has been unable to transport passengers since the beginning of the COVID pandemic, will make a public appearance on October 2 to celebrate Pakistan's independence.

UMass Human Security Lab

UMass Human Security Lab Calls for a UN Peacekeeping Mission for Afghanistan

As the United Nations gather this week in New York, the Human Security Lab is calling for a UN peacekeeping mission to Afghanistan.

UMass Economics

Weber, assistant professor of economics, was recently named one of three recipients of the European Association for Evolutionary Political Economy's Younger Economists Prize.

University of Iowa

The University of Iowa is hosting a series of events to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Iowa層 Project.

Trust Invited to Give Keynote Speech at Wyoming Department of Education's "Innovations in Learning Conference" on Friday, Oct. 1.

The Wyoming Department of Education has invited a keynote speaker to its "Innovations in Learning Conference" on Friday, October 1.

People

People

Inside UMass