

Graduate Certificate in Public Health Ethics

Program Curriculum: 18 credits

Required courses:

- HPP 525-Ethic Issues in Public Health
- HPP 638-Health Disparities
- HPP 780-Public Health Law

Elective Choices: must choose 2 courses

- HPP 524-Introduction to Health Policy and Politics
- HPP 602-Community Development and Health Education
- HPP 632-Social Justice and Public Health
- HPP 753-Current Topics in Public Health Ethics

Final Culminating Project:

- HPP 696-Independent study: Public Health Ethics

The courses offered for the certificate are offered on a set schedule through the academic year as follows:

Spring semesters:

HPP 638-Health Disparities

HPP 602-Community Development

HPP 696-IS: final Project

Summer Semesters:

HPP 524-Intro to Health Policy and Politics

HPP 780-Public Health Law

HPP 696-IS: final Project

HPP 753-Current Topics

Fall Semesters:

HPP 525-Ethical Issues in Public Health

HPP 632-Social Justice

HPP 696-IS: final Project