PART TIME

SPECIAL EDUCATION TUTOR & ACADEMIC COACH

- Do you enjoy working with special education students, but dread the overcrowded classroom?
- Do you excel at creating a nurturing, dynamic, differentiated learning environment, but want to connect with kids more one-on-one, or in pairs?
- Tired of “teaching to the test”?
- Want to work as part of a tight-knit, supportive team?
- Do you want to be a part of a student-centered team that can see immediate, life-changing results in as little as 12 weeks where students gain multiple grade levels in reading and math functions in just 3 months?

This is our daily experience and we are looking for high-quality colleagues to join us on this journey.

Brain Balance Achievement Center of West Springfield is searching for candidates who are passionate about a kid-centered approach that challenges the status quo in education and society in general. We are seeking individuals interested in joining a company that is shifting societal expectations on what is possible with kids who have learning, behavioral or processing challenges/disorders. We are working at the root cause of these childhood developmental disorders, not merely treating the symptoms. Based on 15 + years of clinical research and the concept of neuroplasticity, we are changing kids’ brains, permanently, and for the better, offering them greater success and ease in life, and transforming their trajectory in life. Do you want to be a part of that exciting journey, that sometimes takes as little as 3 months with each kid?...consider joining our team!

Brain Balance Achievement Center of West Springfield is one of only 50 + centers across the nation offering a cutting-edge, brain-based, afterschool learning program for kids ages K-12+ with learning and neurobehavioral challenges. As we grow our center, we are looking for top notch individuals to join our amazing team of dedicated professionals. Our center specifically serves families traveling from all points across northwestern New England (MA, NY, VT, NH and CT).
Currently we are hiring for a Special Education Teacher to act as a Cognitive  The ideal candidate for this position has both training and significant experience working with Special Education students, and children with behavioral issues.

ACADEMIC COACH/SPECIAL EDUCATION TUTOR

Brain Balance Achievement Center seeks a dynamic, enthusiastic and caring certified Special Education teacher (or someone who possesses equivalent professional experience with special needs populations) to teach specific reading and math skills to school aged children who have learning disabilities and/or behavioral challenges.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to the following:

• Work with various children who have a variety of disabilities including ADHD, Autism, Asperger’s, Dyslexia and Processing Disorders
• Deliver specific lessons for each individual student based on brain-based specific protocols
• Motivate students to reach their ultimate potential
• Communicate with families as needed on daily progress
• Operate computers and online programs

Requirements, Skills and Experience:

• Minimum of an associate’s degree required. Bachelor’s degree preferred or about to be obtained in Special Education or Education in general with direct experience working with kids with special needs and behavioral issues.
• Computer literate
• Develop individual student goals

SCHEDULE (approximately)

   Cognitive Coach/Program Hours:
   Monday & Wednesday 2:30-8:00pm and Saturday mornings 9am-1pm

   Hourly rate dependent upon experience. No benefits

Please send resume and a personalized cover letter (no boiler plate letters please) to: tabramsen@brainbalancecenters.com to the attention of Talitha Abramsen, Center Director. Subject Line: Academic Coach.