portraits of a search

Film by Alicia Calderon

With the presence of special guests: Guadalupe Aguilar & Margarita López two of the leading figures in the documentary

In the Mexican narco-war, thousands of mothers search for their missing sons and daughters. The stories of Natividad, Guadalupe and Margarita intertwine to convey the different forms of confronting the search and uncertainty

Wednesday, October 21
4:00 - 6:00 pm
Bernie Dallas Room (UMass)
Free and open to the public

Co-organizers:
• Anthropology Department • STPEC • Honors College • Commonwealth Honors College • Violence and Conflict Lab • Latin American Cultural Center • ALACS •