SACL Bias Response & Prevention

Recognize, Consult, Report, Support, & Educate
Learning Outcomes for Today

• Review federal and campus context
• Define bias, hate crimes, and discrimination
• Review bias recognition and reporting
• Know how to consult, report, support, & offer resources
• Explain UMatter @UMass Active Inclusion Plan
Office of Civil Rights – OCR

- Enforce laws that prohibit discrimination in federally funded programs
- Title VI, Title IX, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation act of 1973, and Age Discrimination Act of 1975
- Why? Acts of bias create a hostile educational environment which has profound consequences for targeted students
UMass Amherst Policies

• Diversity Mission Statement and Affirmative Action Statement
• Code of Student Conduct

“We are required to take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end discrimination, eliminate the hostile environment, prevent its recurrence and as appropriate remedy its effects.”
Faculty Senate Resolution

The Faculty Senate while affirming academic freedom and freedom of speech, opposes demeaning the personhood of anyone regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, color, age, viewpoint, ethnicity, ability, or national origin, and that we support efforts at all levels of the University of Massachusetts to actively create an inclusive campus community and educational environment.

UMatter at UMass 2016-2017
Active Inclusion: Strategic Goals

- Foster Inclusion
- Reduce Isolation
- Respond Effectively to Bias
- Educate on Diversity
UMatter at UMass Prevention Education Initiatives

• Anti-Bias Active Bystandership
  – Builds on general concepts of 3Ds students have already heard and seen
  – Applied to incidences of everyday bias or bigotry

• Speak Up UMass!
  – Flexible UMass-specific curriculum modeled on Speak Up! Curriculum developed by Teaching Tolerance at the Southern Poverty Law Center.
  – Genesis of project is sharing of narratives by students, faculty, and staff about their experiences at UMass related to diversity and inclusion
We get to actively choose the community in which we live. Let's choose to care.
