

University of Massachusetts Amherst Common Data Set Appendix, 2015-16

A. General Information

1. University Overview

The University of Massachusetts Amherst is a coeducational, major public research university located in a beautiful, culturally rich New England town. As a public university, UMass offers an excellent education at an affordable price. Its size, diversity, and the richness of its academic and extracurricular offerings, provide almost unlimited possibilities for personal growth and professional development. A distinctive feature of UMass is the opportunity for undergraduates to become directly involved in research, and get hands-on experience in numerous areas through internships or field experience. UMass also offers a wide range of service learning and volunteer opportunities. Academically talented students may participate in the Commonwealth Honors College that offers both the advantages of a small honors college and the wide-ranging opportunities of a nationally recognized research university. As a member of the nation's oldest and most successful college consortium, Five Colleges Incorporated, which includes Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges as well as the University, UMass students may take courses on any of the five campuses at no extra charge.

2. Computer Facilities

The campus offers centralized computing services through UMass Amherst Information Technology (IT). All matriculated students are required to have an IT account. This account provides students with access to a campus-wide network accessible from residence halls, public buildings, and off-campus; an email account; the campus online course management system; and the campus wireless network. Registration, grades, and student information are available online. The campus also offers tools and training to faculty who wish to integrate technology into their curriculum.

3. Study Abroad

The University offers more than 550 domestic and international exchange programs in over 65 countries to more than 700 students each year. Programs are available in Africa, Asia, Australia, Canada, Caribbean, Ireland, Latin America, Russia and East Europe, Western Europe, Scandinavia, and the United Kingdom.

4. Honor Societies

National Honor Societies	39

5. Special Academic Programs

Commonwealth Honors College, an honors college, offers a dynamic curriculum, including interdisciplinary seminars, enriched honors courses, and opportunities to link academics and community outreach. It offers students a small college environment with the resources of a major university. Commonwealth Honors College resources include special housing opportunities, a computer laboratory, and academic support services, such as the Office of National Scholarship Advisement which assists students applying for prestigious fellowships. Also, students can participate in undergraduate research with the opportunity to present their work at an annual academic conference.

Unique majors include the Bachelor's Degree with Individual Concentration, through which students may design their own interdisciplinary major under faculty guidance.

University Without Walls (UWW) – This program offers non-traditional students an opportunity to earn flexible, individually designed B.A. or B.S. degrees which can be interdisciplinary in nature.

Residential Academic Programs (RAP) allow students to combine living and learning experience through residentially-based academic programs. They include Arts & Humanities, Careers in Education, Social Justice, Sustainable Environment, and TAP (Talent Advanced Program) in a variety of disciplines.

Other academic opportunities include national and international student exchange programs, internships, and opportunities to engage in community service through a growing number of service-learning courses in academic departments.

Students can enroll at no extra charge in courses at Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges through the Five College Consortium. The five colleges have open library borrowing, meal exchange, and a free bus system linking the campuses.

3. Popular Campus Events

At UMass Amherst, students participate in wide range of activities and organizations. Opportunities to get involved include arts and culture, media, government, athletics, and community service. During the fall semester, campus traditions include the Welcome Barbeque and First Week, a week-long celebration that kicks off each academic year, as well as Homecoming, Mass Impact Day of Service, Minutemen football games, and many other sporting events. The spring calendar includes Spring Concert, Soulfest, Big Chill, and Founders Day. Throughout the year, students enjoy the monthly UMass Night Out, cultural nights, student art and music performances, off-Broadway shows, and a weekly film series. Most events are free or offered at a discount, while attending home games in any sport only requires your UMass UCard. Students can attend events at the Fine Arts Center for as little as $15, and many shows at the Mullins Center offer student discounts. Downtown Amherst, just a short walk from campus, is consistently named one of the top college towns in the country, and boasts a wide variety of restaurants, movies, and shopping. The Five College Consortium consists of Amherst, Smith, Mount Holyoke, and Hampshire Colleges, with each campus a short, free bus ride away. Students may take classes on any campus at no additional charge, as well as enjoy additional cultural opportunities, programs, and events.

6. Transportation

UMass Transit is a student-operated bus and van system servicing the University/Five College communities on a daily basis that accepts a valid student, faculty, or staff ID card as proof of payment.

7. Support Services for Minority Students

Center for Multicultural Advancement and Student Success (CMASS) - A learning resource center focused on partnerships, resources and advocacy for underrepresented minority students, CMASS is comprised of four integrated functional areas: academic support, student development, cultural enrichment and institutional diversity. Four freestanding cultural centers offer a range of activities highlighting the similarities and celebrating the differences of various cultural groups.

(<http://www.umass.edu/multiculturalaffairs/>)

Diversity in Management Education Services (DiMES) - The Isenberg School of Management sponsors DiMES. Its goal is to introduce more students of color to Isenberg's educational programs and to promote diversity within the school's community. (<http://engineering.umass.edu/current-students/diversity-programs/multicultural-engineering-programs>)

Multicultural Engineering Program (MEP) - MEP recruits traditionally under-represented minority students through visits to high schools in Massachusetts and college fairs nationwide, and by hosting an annual career day for high school students. To support students once they enroll in the UMass Amherst College of Engineering, MEP provides academic advising, tutoring, mentoring, and financial aid counseling. The program also works with students to find research, co-operative education, and internship opportunities during their college years, and jobs upon graduation.

(<http://www.ecs.umass.edu/mep/>)

Stonewall Center - For almost three decades, the Stonewall Center has provided LGBTQ-related programs, training, information, referrals, advocacy and outreach for UMass Amherst and surrounding communities. In 2013, the university was recognized for the third consecutive year as one of the top 25 campuses in the country for LGBTQ people by Campus Pride, a national support and advocacy organization; UMass has also been rated among the nation's top 10 friendly colleges and universities for transgender people. (<http://www.umass.edu/stonewall/>)

Women of Color Leadership Network (WOCLN) - Provides advocacy, coaching, mentoring, internships, and a wide range of workshops and events for Native American, Latina, Asian American, Native American, Middle Eastern American, multiracial, and multicultural women with the aim of strengthening self-identity and community. (<http://www.umass.edu/ewc/programs/wocln/>)

Other Support Services

Career Center - The department educates UMass students in all phases of their career development, provides networking opportunities for students to engage with employers for internships, jobs, and industry knowledge, and supports and empowers students to make satisfying career choices for future success. (<https://www.umass.edu/careers/>)

Center for Women and Community (CWC) - Provides sexual assault crisis services, counseling, training, support groups, workshops and events for the UMass Amherst, Five College and Hampshire county communities. The center is also home to the Women of Color Leadership Network (WOCLN), providing advocacy, mentoring and programs for university and community women of color in the Five College area. (<http://www.umass.edu/ewc/>)

Religious and Spiritual Life - The office's educational programs, individual and institutional advocacy, interfaith dialogue, and other bridge-building activities are designed to foster an informed, caring and supportive campus community for students of all backgrounds and beliefs. (http://www.umass.edu/religious_affairs/organizations/)

The Office of Family Resources (OFR) - Maintains a welcoming environment for the diverse mix of families who live, work and study at UMass Amherst. OFR programming includes a parenting education speaker series, interactive enrichment activities for parents and children, and a drop-in family center for campus and community families with young children. OFR manages the undergraduate childcare tuition assistance program, and supports campus families through resources including information and referral on topics such as parenting, child development, community resources, school/work/family issued and campus policies. (<http://www.umass.edu/ofr/>)

Veteran Services - The department provides programming and support for transitioning and active veterans and their families. Staff based in the Bursar's Office assist with the education benefits process; a newly located Student Veteran Resource Center in Dickinson Hall offers activities, peer support and a welcoming environment for study and socialization. (<http://www.umass.edu/veterans/>)

8. Student Housing

	# of occupants	% of total
Freshmen occupants	4,773	36%
Undergrad occupants	13,334	99%
Graduate occupants	105	1%

51 Residence Halls

20 Residence Halls for First-Year Students

3 Residence Halls for Sophomore Students

Policy: All non-veteran students are required to live on campus through their freshman year unless they are living with family within a 40-mile radius. Students may choose traditional residence halls, suite-style residence halls, apartment style halls, 12 month housing, the sorority/fraternity system (during their sophomore year), and (if qualified) family housing.

Residential Life offers seven defined residential communities for students seeking to live with others who share their interests, background, or world views:

- Nuance Multicultural Student Community: An inclusive, socially just living and learning environment based on mutual respect among persons of diverse and multiple identities.

- The Asian/Asian-American Student Community: Designed for Asian and Asian-American students, and others interested in Eastern cultures. Residents explore issues of identity, leadership, belonging, and college life in this era of global migration, media, and capital.

- Harambee African Heritage Student Community: Unites students who identify as African or wish to learn more about African history and culture.

- Kanohshesne Native American Student Community: Brings together Native American students and others interested in native cultures. Residents have the opportunity to affirm their identities while learning about the customs and traditions of other tribal nations.

- Spectrum LGBTQA Community: Supports the rights and needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people and their allies. Campus collaborations, programming, and other initiatives foster connections while seeking to eradicate genderism and heterosexism.

- Wellness Community: Members of the Wellness Community create a safe, healthy, inclusive community, living an alcohol- and drug-free lifestyle and engaging in programming supporting all forms of wellness.

- The Veterans Community: Supports students transitioning from military to academic life, through programming resources and a supportive, peer-oriented residential environment.
