

Youth Writing Workshops

Summer 2019

Write. Find your voice. Change the world.

Monday-Friday, July 8-12,
9 a.m.-3 p.m., on the
UMass Amherst campus
(South College).

▶ Creative Writing (for students entering Grades 3-6)

We will use a writer's notebook for gathering ideas, sketching, venting, and journaling. You will have lots of choices for writing. Writing is an essential skill, and it should be fun!

▶ Creative Writing (for students entering Grades 7-12)

Start that novel you've always wanted to write. Try your hand at poetry, personal essay, and persuasion. Special attention will be given to writing to create social change.

▶ Conquering the College Application (for students entering Grades 10-12)

Guided by an ELA teacher and former college admissions counselor, you will write and workshop college essays, practice college interviews, begin your Common Applications.

Cost: $300 plus $25 registration fee (includes daily snacks and lunch at award-winning UMass dining commons)

Register at www.umass.edu/wmwp

Questions? Call 413-545-5466 or
